Summary: You are invited to register for participation in a fun-filled night to help us celebrate health and fitness during NBA Fit Week.

AmeriHealth Caritas Louisiana has partnered with the New Orleans Saints and Pelicans to create "Champions of Care", a collaboration to encourage health and wellness for Louisiana residents.

In an effort to thank you for the quality care you provide our members, you are invited to join us at AmeriHealth Caritas Louisiana's signature basketball game with the New Orleans Pelicans during NBA Fit Week, a Champions of Care Event. The game will take place on March 24, 2022 at 7:00 PM in New Orleans.

Medical providers are encouraged to register for the event. Tickets are available at no cost to providers. Seating is limited; therefore, registration is first come, first served. Practitioners will receive two tickets per practice/provider group.

We do not wish to give away exciting details; however, tickets and seating are impressive! Providers must register by noon March 10, 2022 to qualify.

To register, please send an email to network@amerihealthcaritasla.com to include your NPI (for provider identification purposes only), name of guest #1, name of guest #2, and a phone number for direct outreach and event confirmation details.

We hope to see you there!
