Summary: NAMI Upcoming Webinar: How Employment Support Mental Health Recovery

The National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) and IPS Employment Center will host a webinar titled “NAMI Ask the Expert: How Employment Supports Mental Recovery on April 18, 2024.” Employment provides many benefits that support the recovery journey of people with a mental health condition. For many, employment provides purpose and structure to one’s day. Further, research shows that long-term gainful employment improves the quality and length of life through multiple wellness dimensions. Unfortunately, people with mental health conditions are often not supported in their pursuit of paid employment and are sometimes encouraged to stay on government benefits.

In this webinar, you’ll hear from experts Dr. Robert Drake, a co-developer of the Individual Placement and Support (IPS) model of supported employment, Dr. Peggy Swarbrick, the creator of the 8 Dimensions of Wellness, and George H. Brice, Jr., whose personal recovery benefited greatly from supported employment. This webinar is focused on the important role that employment plays in recovery and how interventions such as IPS can make a difference for people living with mental health conditions.
